Membership 4-H Club Leaders Take Lesson in Handcraft 2 Are Given Gain Shown By County HomeBureau

A prosperous year with a membership increase of 130 and six new units has been announced by Mrs. Charlotte K. Runey, Chemung County Home Bureau agent, in her annual report to the county.

A membership of 446 during 1938-1939, has increased to a current total of 576 since the recent membership campaign; and additional members continue to enroll. With the six new units established since December 1938, a total of 28 units now exist in nearly every community or town in the county, Mrs. Runey reported. The Chemung County Home Bureau, which is affiliated with the New York State Federation of Home Bureaus and the Associated Countrywomen of the World, has cooperated in its work with 15 other vicinity organizations: The Visiting Nurse and Tuberculosis Association; the American Red Cross; the Farm Security Committee; Chemung County Agricultural Society; Parent-Teacher Association; Council of Social Agencies; Zonta Club; Group 111 of the New York State Bankers Association; Home Economics classes of the Breesport school; the Junior Home Bureau.
